A snake, a fake, he's lame, he's in this game for the money and for the fame a spin, a grin, he's on and then we yawn steals the credit then he's gone he's the man with a plan and first he'll seem helpfull to make sure that you're on the hook he's so full of bull and he sure will pull some strings to make things go his way everything will go his way

We're in the monkey biz the monkey boogie is nothing new and he'll be doin' the dance with you

Humble, mumble, stumble don't think so that is not the way to go connect, collect, correct, what did you expect? did you think that he seriously cares for you?
do the monkey boogie, orangu-tango, baboon!
