Oohâ€!
Now it's official
You're out of my life
Too many tears I've cried
I'm leaving the moments
Behind on the shelf
Believing in you
Was hard for myself

But all your apologies are outside the door
I can't waste my time on you anymore
I've fallen much deeper than this before

There's no tears on my pillow
No room for crying
No tears on my pillow
I left them behind
And I've found me a better place
Somewhere inside
And I know I won't cry these tears anymore, mmm

Can't say I'm selfish
I'm trusting my heart
I know what I want
And it tears you apart
Don't worry about me
Thinking of you
My days are filled
With too much to do

The whole world is waiting
For me to explore
I can't waste my time on you anymore
(Just can't waste my time on you anymore, oh)
I've fallen much deeper than this before

There's no tears on my pillow (no tears)
No room for crying (crying)
No tears on my pillow (no tears on my pillow)
(I left them behind) I left them behind
And I've found me a better place (found me a better place)

Somewhere inside (somewhere inside)
And I, I know I won't cry these tears anymore

(No, mmm) no regrets (no regrets) no sadness (no sadness)
You're not the first man
(You're not the first or the last man)
You're not the last man
Somehow you had me trapped in your web
But it won't be raining
When I lay my head down, no

And I've found me a better place
Somewhere inside
And I know
I know I won't cry these tears anymore

Tears on my pillow (oh)
No more tears on my pillow
No more tears on my pillow
Oh, no, mmm!
