Could it be I'm a lonely one that made everything so upsidedown now could it be all the lies I told that gave nightmares to me after an olympic day you said everything was fine but I saw you through and I knew that I was just as bad as you.

Never said I would give you up but if I must then tell me why now never said I believed in all those things I've heard about you from those rumours now I thought everything was fine but you proved me wrong and I was taken by surprise.

Don't like me, don't like me,
don't you know I'm good for nothing, don't like me, was what you told me when I called you up.
Don't like me, don't like me,
don't you know I'm good for nothing, don't like me, whatever I may say to make you feel that way.

Could it be I'm a lonely one that turned everything so upside down now could it be that you told me that you still loved me that made me change so quickly now I heard me when you called.

Don't like me, don't like me,
don't you know I'm good for nothing, don't like me, was what I told you when you called me
up,
don't like me, don't like me,
don't you know I'm good for nothing, don't like me, eventhough inside I know I want you to didn't want to tell you what to do.
