Everyone wants to be like her
Everyone thinks she's got everything
The whole world stares
But no one cares about her

She's just like you
She's just like the girl next door
She's just like an ordinary girl

The paper's talk about her lovers
And just as soon as word comes
That she's found another
They claim an outrage
Right across the front page

She's just like you
She's just like the girl next door
She's just like an ordinary girl

Well I know
She knows
It's just a matter of time
And I feel
She feels
She's running out of time

Bet she longs to be
Just like you and me
Oohhhhhh
She's just an ordinary girl
She's just an ordinary girl

Oh she's just like you
She's just like the girl next door
She's just like an ordinary girl

Oohhh she's no different
She's no different, although it seems
She's just like an ordinary girl
