Every morning, it's a new surprise don't know who I am before I roll the dice the options is the only thing that I decide you see, I live for the moment know I never did before, with all and everything I sweep the floor random I am, I never give a damn about what's gonna happen next my wife and kids they left me and my job is just a memory but that's the kind of price you've got to pay if you're gonna go your own way salving problems can be done in many ways

I don't care, I just roll the dice It's o.k, cause I just have to pretend that I am someone else

Get rid of all the habits now that's the plan come on and try it and you'll feel grand the first step is the hardest step to take imagination is the only brake just roll the dice and everything will turn out nice you can be who you wanna be do what you wanna do and do it how you like this is my way of getting thru the day, but I still don't know
