1st verse

I've been talking to some friends of mine about you boy.

They say you're about to have a child.

When you're gonna tell me 'bout it.

This other chick you're sleeping with now you gotta deal with.

Hope you found happiness. I found myself in such a mess with you.

And I put way too much love into you.

Thought that one day we'll be true.

And time after time I stuck with you.

But now I'm too through....

Hook

Cause I've been a fool, sitting 'round too long.

I think it's 'bout time that I ring da bell and carry on.

Forgave you before (yes I did, yes I did, yes I did) but it's too far gone.

I think it's 'bout time that I ring da bell and move along.

2nd verse

Said it was a mistake on the night you saw her late.

Must have been for pure affection.

Boy you didn't have protection.

Had to think of me, but you did never see yourself in this predicament.

Never thought that it would catch up with you.

Put way too much love into you.

Thought that one day we'll be true.

And time after time I stuck with you.

But now I'm too through...

Hook (2x's)

Cause I've been a fool (yeah, yeah) sitting 'round too long. (sitting 'round too long)

I think it's 'bout time that I ring da bell and carry on.

Forgave you before (before) but it's too far gone.

I think it's 'bout time that I ring da bell and move along.

3rd verse

Not for the way you treated me, gave you everything.

(I gave you everything).

So hurt to say (I'm so hurt) you didn't tell me. (You didn't tell me)

Can't wait to leave.
Back to Hook
I don't really want to know baby.
You did never really care for me.
I don't really want to know baby.
You did never really care for me.
