That woman's got a smile
She puts you in a trance
And just one look at her
Makes you wanna dance

Those dark and rosy lips
Only pass her by
With just a hint of ruthlessness
Sparkling in her eye

She's a teaser
And she got no heart at all
She's a teaser
And she'll tempt you till you fall
Yeah, she'll tempt you till you fall

She'll talk to you in riddles
That have no sense of rhyme and if you ask her what she means
Say she don't got no time

She's a teaser
And she got no heart at all
She's a teaser
And she'll tempt you till you fall
She's a teaser
And she got no heart at all
Yeah, she'll tempt you till you fall

She's a teaser
And she got no heart at all
She's a teaser
And she'll tempt you till you fall
She's a teaser
And she got no heart at all
She's a teaser
And she'll tempt you till you fall
Yeah, she'll tempt you till you fall
