She's shakin' like a dash-board doll

Cool, cruel and calculating

A beauty in the back seat

She runs hot and leaves you cold

She's wicked with a mean streak

A time-bomb ticking away

Here comes trouble right on the double

With a split-personality

Heaven knows there's hell to pay

Never have I seen such an attitude

Don't shoot, it's only me, babe

Watch what you might say hey

And how you say it

She's so temperamental

Don't turn your back on a good little girl like that

She's oh-so twisted, she's so temperamental

Just a little bit

Temperamental

One minute she's an innocent child

Sweet taste of her emotion

Angel with a strange twist

Man, it's all worthwhile
Bad luck comin' on strong
Ready to meet it halfway home
Heartbreaker
Time to meet the maker
'Cause her mind's long-gone
Heaven knows there's hell to pay
Never have I seen such an attitude
Don't shoot, it's only me, babe
Watch what you might say hey,
And how you say it
She's so temperamental
Don't turn your back on a good little girl like that
She's oh, so twisted, she's so temperamental
Just a little bit wicked.
