While you rumba and you samba to the party
propaganda melody

A multimillion dollar corporation starts to collar your destiny.

Who is in control of your body and your soul when you dance with me.

Everybody in here has lived inside a frontier like a refugee.

All along the border, they're searching for you -

Just like an immigrant in your country, too.

Reduplication. Reincarnation. Let's do the variation.
Unite-unite your nation.

Fa-fa-fa! Fa-fa-fa! Fa-fa-fa!

Diplomats and bureaucrats are busy speculating a conspiracy.

Administrating, calculating, arbitrating everybody's history.

From Hong Kong to Ecuador, the dance is a battle for equality.

Disco is the rock-and-roll-blues-jazz-country-soul-recipe.

All along the borders, they're searching for you -

What will you say when they're interrogating you?

Reduplication. Reincarnation. Let's do the variation.
Unite-unite your nation.

Fa-fa-fa! Fa-fa-fa! Fa-fa-fa!

Now watch your parking meters and don't follow leaders into bankruptcy.

All of the green soldiers are under marching orders for the tourists to see.

This is not a fashion show - We are the red commando.
Don't desert me .

You can do the left and right when we go and dance all night to victory.

All along the border, they're searching me and you.

Total entertainment; Red, yellow, white, and blue!

Reduplication. Reincarnation. Let's do the variation.
Unite-unite your nation.

Reduplication. Reincarnation. Let's do the variation.
Unite-unite your nation.

Reduplication. Reincarnation. Let's do the variation.
Unite-unite your nation.

Reduplication. Reincarnation. Let's do the variation.
Unite-unite your nation.

Unite-unite your nation.

Unite-unite your nation.

Unite-unite your nation.
