September '57, it was a very good year That's when I met heaven, and all the smoke came clear
I didn't see it coming, I was a very dumb kid Nobody ever touched me, quite like the way that you did

And now you know that I suck at this, and you suck at it too
And now we're nothing more than vampires in love

(chorus)

And I'm wide awake, and you're wide awake
And I don't think that I'm getting tired at all

This is the brightest sunlight, my shade will do me no good
I ain't a morning person, but I'd be one if I could

And cuz of us I just stay up at night, and watch stupid movies 'til the tv is white And now were nothing left but vampires in love

(chorus)
