She stands under moonlight, she touches her hair, Her smile lacks emotion, her love fill's the air, and I know your my every tomorrow and I know that you'll always be there

CHORUS:

We've got the world tonight (tonight) let's hold on together, And we've got a love thats right (thats right) So open your heart, we've got tonight

We move even closer, With hope in our eyes, Cause love is the answer to the hurt and the lies, And I know you're my every tomorrow and I know that you'll always be there,

CHORUS.
