"When You Go"

Well I've tried
To tell you my feelings
But it doesn't seem to make a difference to you
What a lie
That this day brings
When you shed tears for feelings that never were true

Chorus:
When you go
I hope you'll be happy this way
Cause the sadness you leave behind
With me will always stay
And you know, that I loved you everyday
I can't believe that I was so blind
For my love you could betray
Just go

Well I knew
That your love was fading
When I held you in my arms
I still felt alone
I cried, inside
I hoped these were bad dreams
Now this mystery is no longer unknown

Chorus (2x)
