Standin' naked in the rain
Knowing things will never be the same
On and on and on
Again trying hard to find the words to say
I feel that I've been here before this feeling I can't take it anymore
I turn the key
Unlock the door
I see you standing there
Now I'm sure

Now I'm sure

I'm reaching out to you
I'm reaching out to you
To see you smile again

Standin' naked in the rain
Knowing things will never be the same
On and on and on
Again trying hard to find the words to say
I feel that I've been here before
this feeling I can't take it anymore
I turn the key
Unlock the door
I see you standing there
Now I'm sure

Now I'm sure

I'm reaching out to you
I'm reaching out to you
To see you smile again
