[Lisa] Yeah Yeah-yi-yeah Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah I was asked one day If I had a can of memories, and Would it have an expiration date So tell me, baby To forget or not to forget Can I choose Tell me Baby To drain away my heart's Resounding blues Mmm Well And Just, when I thought, I reached my destination Oh, I was only back to where I first started Mmm Becoming who I've always, always hated Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah Yeah, yeah The unbecoming Unleashed So won't you Won't you speak to me {Lisa singing to melody}

[Verbal] You know you got a Bad sense of humor You uttered softly You just spilled some coffee You stained my clothes, as well as my clear conscience Probably Probably, probably, probably Probably, accidental But the thoughts that crossed my mind would leave you petrozoomin' by Unrecordable with pad and pencil Yo Anyway, I tremble Symbolizing My temperature rising Reminiscing the times when I'd do Anything for you, but not knowing why Like Abraham sacrificing Isaac I worshipped you You were my idol Silly Silly of me Silly, silly, silly Silly But right around now, I find no Desires As a matter of fact I'm based against all your opinions Like dry rose Like dry rose Once lively and captured your heart But now, destined to be crushed, and becomes dust Til death do us part Ashes to ashes I once died for this world, but now I'm born again Oh Lord, I'm born again Mmm hmm My barefeet on cold cement Waiting for the day of resurrection, irrelevant Small talks with you that take us no where I don't know how I was able to bear The way you didn't show care That's right Way you didn't show care I guess I harbored resentment this whole time Kept it within me Never exposed what's been on my mind But now you know Uh huh Yo, yo But now you know {Lisa singing to melody} Baby, talk Now you know Now you know

[Lisa] Hey Hey Mmm You know Self denial used to numb my pain But nowadays I can't find the novocane ways to hide what I already know I know Know Know I'd rather you shout Go on, boy Go shout that nonsense Than to whisper Your little hurtful truths Mmm, mmm, yeah Just when I thought I got all I wanted I realized I lost just about Let's say Everything Saying what I've never Never, ever said to anyone Breathing murderous, I mean, you know it Murderous thoughts So won't you Won't you Speak to me Me, baby Yeah Three words of truth Shine deep Deep within me Anchoring my stormy Stormy heart Yes, and I need faith To see what I can't see Oh, yes And I need, hope To keep me going So, strong And I need love Your love Safe and sound Maybe that is all That is all I need From deep within
