gravity's my enemy it grabs on me like i'm a leech the stars are bangin close to me as i'm floating in a light odyssey my lines are down you can't call me as i fly around in space odyssey

??
it's got color when it's following me and i still judge you week by week and i'm here, the times they can never lose me

you might take a minute or two to introduce my point of view i need to spend some time with you there's nothing more new on the news

my lines are down
you can't call me
and i fly around in space odyssey
my lines are down
you can't call me
and i fly around in space odyssey
