Rafting Thru Dreams;

I feel so empty in my head sometimes it's just mad like rafting around in a dream but never sad I see a night sky with stars shining bright to my right is a car by a wall and it's white right, enough with the scene setting here adhere to the story of Chris when he steer thru rivers and valleys to political rally's got people around, specially one guy, O'Malley a farmer living at the purple haze fields yields 50 tonnes of supreme mass appeal for real, people come from all over the planet to try some of this shit, like this one chick, Janet Janet was still young like 16 years old but she toked like a master and held all the smoke I was like whoa, yo just pass me that shit so we transfered the smoke with a long ass kiss I was bliss but I ran through yellow green grass with some hasch in my palm I crashed on a lawn next to this one guy, he called himself Satan a sorry motherfucker who just wouldnt stop debating about what is right and about what is wrong in the way u hold the light when you're lighting up a bong Wrong! he said in a fair annoying voice u gotta angle it man come here let me show!
NO! I said Fuck You! I'm gonna light it it doesnt matter bout the angle its the shit u gotta handle
