Show me the star you wish upon
And I'll look for it every night
When you are far away from me
My faith in you will shine
When you need a friend
Tell your heart to send
A message out into the blue
Find the wings to fly
Cross an endless sky
I will be there for you
You have a heart that's always true
But sometimes you just want to give in
Hold on to love, I'm here for you
Whatever the future brings
When you need a friend
Tell your heart to send
A message out into the blue
Find the wings to fly
Cross an endless sky
I will be there for you
Life is a road that twists and turns
Everybody gets lost on the way
Harder to trust, when faith's not enough
Look for the light of day
Broken dreams come together now
We'll find each other somehow
Find the wings to fly
Cross an endless sky
I will be there for you
When you need a friend
Tell your heart to send
Find the wings to fly
Cross an endless sky
I will be there
Find the wings to fly
Cross an endless sky
I will be there for you
