There is a place where lovers go
When they want to be alone
Away from the world
Happiness is just a dream away
I feel it
When I am here with you
Could this be a magic
Sent from somewhere high above
Could this be the moment
When I find my way to love
Raindrops and angels wings
And all of the happy things
That's what you've given to me
How could I ever leave
When there is heaven
In the air we breathe
Could this be a magic
Sent from somewhere high above
Could this be the moment
When I find my way to love
When there is emptiness
And no-one share
The special things you have in your life
Keep reaching out until you find
That someone
To make everything right
