I'm going down by the riverside gonna wash away my troubles in the noon day tide.
The tax man's coming and he wants his dues but the only way to catch me is to wet his shoes.

I've found my freedom
a paradise meant for me
I've found my freedom
da-da-da-da
de-de-de.
I've found my freedom
a paradise meant for me
I've found my freedom
da-da-da-da
de-de-de.

Hold my head up and look to the sun i've found me a place where I don't have to run no-one to find me in my restricted zone
'cause I've left my address as a place unknown.

I've found my freedom...

Remember all you people if you're tired and down you've got to leave the city or you're sure to drown make a bid for freedom and you're sure to find you've found yourself the good life and your peace of mind.

I've found my freedom...
