They say, They say this life is gonna chew you up and spit you right back out but this games all i know about and i know it aint fair but im almost there, i know im almost there, yeah, yeah, yeah im feeling stuck really what the fuck, i kill it with the lyrics while i struggle for a buck im frustrated, feelin like i shoulda just made it, making money off of shows but cant even make a payment on a new whit on the edge im realy bout to lose it, but the fans keep me motivated i know i can do this its funny, seems like everbody focusing on the lyrical content but im barely seeing any money ill leave your nose runny cause im so sick yo, still scrapin together quarters to get bogies down to sicko
