Yeah

We all get to that point in our life
Shit really hits the fan
And everything seems like it sucks
But you know you always gatta think
Everything happened for a reason
You know what Im saying?
Everybody make mistakes, Im the first to admit it But once you make the choice you're forced to live with it
Some people never get it 'till they live it
And then when the live it its not a chance that they ever could forget it
You wish you could switch you weight on that lawyer visit
And we all be dead and gone like I had Timberlake to spit it
The way I have been living my life just wouldn't cut it
Head always in the clouds
With an attitude like "fuck it" but that's just immaturity
And surely I figured out thoroughly that that was only hurting me
Now I need a purposely to get my life back on track
And leave some things in the past
Its as simple as that

CHORUS

Some people say that Im not worth it
I make mistakes but no body's perfect
I guess ill give it a try
I got one last chance
To get myself together
Cant lose no more time
Its now or never.
And I try to remember who I used to be
I got one last chance to get myself together

Sometime you need to realize
You got one last chance when the outcome of your life
Rest within the judges hands
And I'll never understand how one man with a gavel
Can decide if you future is worth being unraveled

Or take away your patle
And send you right down shifts
For as long as the dude sees fit
See it's a tuff ass world that we live in
You could find yourself in prison over one wrong decision
It's difficult to get this shit out of your mind
Wish you could just press rewind go back in time
But I've accepted that I need to find the bright side
Cause off to the dark is the only thing inside
I'll find that silver lining

Cause I gatta keep on rhyiming Cause until I reach the top you know I gatta keep on climbing
One set back wont stop me
Im still here breathing
Believing that even this shit happened for a reason

CHORUS

Some people say that Im not worth it
I make mistakes but no body's perfect
I guess ill give it a try
I got one last chance
To get myself together
I cant lose no more time
Its now or never.
And i try to remember who I used to be
I got one last chance to get myself together

Oohhhhh and I don't wanna be misunderstood
(but you gatta understand me)
I got to take this chance and make it into something good
(you gatta always find the bright side)

Some people say that Im not worth it
I make mistakes but no body's perfect
I guess I'll give it a try
(I got one last chance to get my self together
Cant lose no more time
its now or never)x3
And I try to remember who I used to be
I got one last chance to get myself together

I got one last chance
(Yeah, I got one last chance)

(Yes its all I need)
Sometimes
(One last chance)

You just gatta change everything it up
Roll the fuck up
You know?
You can always bounce back

Ha Ha Ha Ha
