barns on me yeah

webby back up in this bitch, funny at the fucking lip proud to be american, huh you fuck the government president ain't doing shit and everybody knows a fucking country is controlled by corporations see y'all tell me how they lock the people love for 20 back to broad the people make em loss at the biggest criminals on the grow feeling different now that i'm old enough to see right through the media search to find the truth through all the bullshit that they're feeding us kids they all learn from what they know from wikipedia and take whatever pills the fucking doctor you need to you generation all rex now i'm fucking dependent all attention medications 'cause i've been on em since i was seven and need that roll to wake up and may be in the sleep viking in the ease to pain and steroids if you're feeling weak and everybody on the street is on their phone and they don't give a damn and kids they are learning social skills from facebook and instagram so i light up a doo we and exhale blow and smoke up in the sky
while i'm looking at camera frames you grind me politicians and twisting my impredictions i'm like fuck it let me just enjoy my time and while i'm living
the shit is got me saying

hook:

i don't give a fuck if you don't like me you'll never find another mother fucker like me somebody step into the kid is unlike me, so bite me i do whatever i like, with this words that i write soon as a pick up a mike, i do whatever i like bitch i do whatever i like i'm so fly my attitude that take me to a cruise and altitude of a view that will show you how a falcon moves

i got no rules i'm not prohibited or limited excuse me if i'm offending you suck my dick my people is.. feeling about my opinions just let me know that i'll be scarier
free style equal re-speech i thought this was america america, oh mother free, land of the brave man home on the stage, i fuck your head i'm not trying to run come to them brave and darker them rap game ain't still ain't got no bump thrown in my cage

a fucking immature juvenile only thing wrong is my age and you won't seat you'll see sick like the boat rocking
and honestly gotta be apparent 'cause i watch my iphone but i feel like my phone is watching me
i'm in the world win i wonder when the world win 'cause my mother fucker gal if you find me faster than my girl and this world is fucking us, technology fuck this up and see to y'all fucking slut, the way this world turn into beyond me but twin me astrology and bath soul zombies i'm like

hook:
i don't give a fuck if you don't like me
somebody step into the kid is unlike me, so bite me
