i think im in love
but i dont really know what love is
i think im in love
cuz i be going crazy off one kiss
i think im in love
but she probly aint in love with me
i think im in love

look, there's just something about her carmel skin and how her chest look in every single bra she in and got me with her every single day out the week we dont even hit the streets we just stay in the sheets those brown eyes got me trapped kiss her on her stomach when she lies on her back she got class, cry and she laugh (for dime when she ask)??? drinking wine by the glass no other girl can make me hers its whoever wanna take me first and she grabbed me, wouldn't let me go usually your hard like an eskimo cold but she said there's something about me that she dont want no loving without me skin so soft like im touching some downy girl i think i'm in love

i think im in love
but i dont really know what love is
i think im in love
i think im in love
she probly aint in love with me
look, check my phone always text me when she wake up sex is real great always messing up her make up no clothes on loving to a slow song everyone tellin us this thing we have is so wrong and she dont care whatever goes on plus shes best friends with my mom keep a journal, you all know the story no, the superficial type love her horoscopes and im a capricorn that she aint never had before her ex hates me cause he aint me that's for sure she got this look she give that send him running she so stunning got my heart jumping and my mind is all twisted her lips is delicious for kisses i got her heart on my wish list manager get rid of business

i think im in love
but i dont really know what love is
i think im in love

so this bitch really hit me like how did you get so luck you know what i said bitch how did you get so lucky what the fuck you think this is, aye i treat my ladies right and that's for damn sure
