Intro:

Yo

You have now reached, the back of the High Life

Ah-ha!

Thanks for comin' out

I've been your host, Mac Miller

It's been great spendin' the evening witchu

Let's ride out, for one last time

East end empire

DJ Chef

Let's get it

Chorus:

So lay back in your seat, with your feet up on your couch

Thanks for comin' out

It's been good, it's been great, see you later

Times runnin' out, and y'all know what I'm about

Thanks for comin' out

It's been good, it's been great, see you later

Verse One:

So it's the end of the tape

The last page

Hoes back stage

Party like my last day

Matter fact bitch I ain't even half way finished

Y'all fragile held up in your glass cage

The grass sleepy like that foreign dude runnin' the Rat
Race

Ass face, all your music nothin' but bad taste

I murder beats you can ask Mace, homie

My shit I drop stickier than trash day

I ain't gotta change shit

I'm so dangerous

And my style like a smile

So contagious

Bitches givin' me they hearts

So consistent never smart

Cause they always beggin' me not to break it

And ima make it

I'm somethin' you don't really see often

Gonna be the greatest and that ain't just the weed talkin'
I tell these people give me a clue
Cause the boy be chasin' honeys like Whinny the Pooh
Chorus:
So lay back in your seat, with your feet up on your
couch
Thanks for comin' out
It's been good, it's been great, see you later
Times runnin' out, and y'all know what I'm about
Thanks for comin' out
It's been good, it's been great, see you later

Verse Two:
Rain drops fallin' on my brain
Stayin' on track like I'm followin' a train
And I'm grindin' like your teeth when you angry
Go ahead cry yourself to sleep you a baby
Just a bum gotta hand you some change
Too smart
Y'all can call me Andy Dufresne
Still gotta inbox full of texts
And hoes tell me that I make a great first impression
Never stick around so they never learn they lesson

Hit it then I'm Nick Cage
Gone in sixty seconds
But you already know that pimpin'
Fish outta water need to go back swimmin'
They trippin'
Every time I'm rollin' they dippin'
Cause my style "doh!"
Call me Homer Simpson
In the sky like Santa I'm fly
You a loser
Meg Griffin on Family Guy

Chorus:
So lay back in your seat, with your feet up on your
couch
Thanks for comin' out
It's been good, it's been great, see you later
Times runnin' out, and y'all know what I'm about
Thanks for comin' out
It's been good, it's been great, see you later
