One big mistake some people make is when they take for granted love will always stay the same because eventually love needs attention or it has a tendency to fade away
that is why I'll always give you every little thing you may have only dreamed of all I wanna give you
every little thing
all I wanna give you is everything Some peoples' needs can never be pleased but we both agree
we're not that way as I suspected my secret weapon will be to keep you satisfied every day

that is why I'll always give you
every little thing you may have only dreamed of
all I wanna give you
all I wanna give you is everything Why would I chose to ever deny you it would only risk our happiness I feel compelled to overwhelm you and to never let you catch your breath
that is why I'll always give you
every little thing you may have only dreamed of
all I wanna give you
