i saw the judgeman counting the hours i saw in the prisons too many names i saw religion closing eyes i saw the faith speaking out his mind i saw conversations becoming words saw the big man smashing the poor saw the courage becoming scare saw the enemies becoming one just to smash our head so let me say people makes yourself (x4) delivering sweat to enlarge another man's pocket and yet you find no other way to even full your own that's not on check out the message of this song you got to rebel can't wait no more you got to rebel can't wait no more you got to rebel never follow the row
you got to rebel can't wait no more
and keep and keep on talking say you keep on talking alone talking loud but saying nothing yes you are talking loud but saying nothing you are talking loud but saying nothing you keep talking loud but saying nothing nothing to me people and makes yourself (x4)
