I taste the bitter sweetness
Of revenge and fly
No other meaning ever
Stills my violent sky

Abused and violated
By those who control
I am re-animated
Yet I have no soul

There's no distinction in my mind
You are all my enemies

I will return
To reclaim my broken past
To pay the evil minions back
For my misery at last
I will return
To the fortress to redeem
To wipe this evil nightmare
From my memory and dreams

I will not fade away
And die like all the rest
I will return to wipe out
Terminate your nest
