Stand aside, you can't collide
With a million years of pride
And not fucking die
Conviction,
And with the power of hatred
I will crash the heavens
And rape the sacred
Tension, pay no attention,
Unbridled rage is the final dimension
Take back what was taken,
Burn the world
For all crimes forsaken

Yeah! Straight from the top of my dome
As I rock the microphone!

We are beyond the time of correction,
A rebuild now could only
Follow destruction
The system cannot be reformed,
The structure will never
Transform by itself

Yeah! Straight from the top of my dome
As I rock the microphone!
