And I watched through bitter eyes
As the blood filled in the cracks, black
A burning effigy told me I should kneel 'cause

I'm worshipping with terror
A disease bum the sacred oil yeah

They told us there'd never come a day
They told us that we need not worry
So we fucked around, thought this shit would change
Turned our eyes away

I am the power siege
And the rush you will feel, thrill
Exploding out of me
Through clenched teeth I will scream out

We're suffering with malice you deceive
Puke sold as salvation

They told us there'd never come a day
They told us that we need not worry
So we fucked around, thought this shit would change
Turned our eyes away

And I watched it slip away
And you watched it slip away
And we watched it slip away
'Cause no one took a stand
And I watched it slip away
And you watched it slip away

And we watched it slip away
'Cause no one took a stand
No one took a stand
And I watched it slip away
And you watched it slip away
And we watched it slip away
We watched it slip away
