"Flown"

See you come in like the rain
With your song never sung
Crying in the waterfall
Green is calling from the vine
Won't you wonder why

You remember this
Another time will come
Waiting for a kiss
Putting your eyes to sleep
With a single wish

Now you're bitten by the phone
Cause it's so close to home
Waiting like the falling sun
Where the aviator's gone
Would you like to come

But you say you never learn
He's the one you waited for
Let's you ride the wild high horses
You went dancing round the sun
Are you still having fun
When they take the stars away

Now you're back on your feet again
You can learn how to run
Singing in the waterfall
Only shadows that you saw
Put your tears away
