Here comes another ballroom story
Those low dead dice the recent past
Sweet innocence has lost her glory
In modern living so she wears a mask
She wears a mask

She's up until four in the morning
Swimming in a cocktail glass
It's cold when blue lets the dawn in
It's winter when she wears her mask
She wears a mask

If that's a look on her face
Then no we're never ever going to find out
If it's a five or an ace
That takes her out

On saturday nights when it's raining
She dresses up and drives too fast
There is no use or complaining
She's singing and she wears a mask
She wears a mask

If that's a look on her face
Then no we're never ever gonna find out
If it's a five or an ace
That takes her out
