Holly avenue

You're gonna make me fall
I'm a long way from home
And I need someone to call
Doesn't matter what you say
You're gonna have to show me
I've been sitting here for days
Watching everything go grey

There'll be no turning back
To simple shores
You'll be one time married
And twice divorced
And the truth in the dance steps
Back and forth
You must go now fight another
Holy war

Holly avenue
You're gonna make me blue
I've been waiting here for news
Now you're gonna make me choose

There'll be no turning back
To simple shores
You'll be one time married
And twice divorced
And the truth in the dance steps
Back and forth
You must go now fight another
Holy war
