I've got a bag of dorrito's and a can of cherry coke
I turn on the xbox and I'm already stoked.
Because I know nobody can step up to me
While I'm dominating all the land on HALO 3.
The assault rifle is lame the shotgun is insane,
But I prefer the battle rifle while I'm fighting long range,
You'll be minding your own business when your pow beat down.
By the time you know it's me I wont even be around
And without a sound you can try to find me
But your the one who'll get found.
Then I'll pump you full of led or lay you out with a grenade
Find this place on halo than you know I have it made
