She'z 'n control, she holds my soul
That wicked woman's got me by the balls
Nowhere to run, nowhere to go
Her love has got me at her beck and call

She'z 'n control, she holds my soul
That wicked woman's acting out of line
She wants to fight, argues all the time
I try to run but there's nowhere to hide

I feel she takes me on a merry-go-round
When she's nice to me in front of her friends
But when they're gone and there's no one around
That's exactly when the madness begins

I feel she takes me on a merry-go-round
When she's nice to me in front of her friends
But when they're gone and there's no one around
That's exactly when the madness begins
