Things change for good and bad
The happiest things can make us sad
Nothing makes me happier than seeing your smile
Your beautiful face makes life worth while

Before I was rolling with a gun in my pants
Now I'm leading you to the floor to dance
I used to be a player, number one at that
I'd go for all girls, white, black, slim, fat
I used to push drugs to make my dough
Now my status is a drug no-no
I ain't gonna lie I'm going soft
But baby you love it now that I've gone soft

Things change for good and bad
The happiest things can make us sad
Nothing makes me happier than seeing your smile
Your beautiful face makes life worth while

So baby this is my song for you
When there's you who needs a crew?
Who wants live like they do in the ghetto?
Things are different now that I've met yo
Your eyes they sparkle like the sea
The stars in the sky spell out you and me
Just for you I'm a nice guy now
I thought old life was top now I think how

Things change for good and bad
The happiest things can make us sad
Nothing makes me happier than seeing your smile
Your beautiful face makes life worth while

So honey kiss me here and I'll stroke you there
Stare into my eyes and I'll play with your hair
Sexy girl I feel the way you dance for me
Now come on baby come and get a kiss from me

Things change for good and bad
The happiest things can make us sad
Nothing makes me happier than seeing your smile

Your beautiful face makes life worth while
