Well I'm back out on the road again lost among the city lights

Were stepping it up harder just to make it to the show tonight

With yesterday's antics still playing in my head Another day's upon us so let's do it all again

It's just another town another days another year
We got to wait 'til five o'clock before we crack a beer Somewhere it's got to be 5 o'clock, yeh thays what we say

It's all just a game to keep ourselves sane

Drink smoke drink smoke this is what we do Drink smoke drink somke playing it for you

Born to roam here we go yeah

Another city and another day
The road is my home all alone yeah
Out on the streets is where we gotta stay

Wellwe barely see the light of the sun with all the midnight fun

It's coming down on my head I feel it
But the music is part of my soul
So I jump back in headfirst my arms around it

Outside tonight I don't think there's anything going on around here
