Efficiency you miss it
You mistify and twist it
You roll it in your rocking words
And then you finally reject it
Officialy you take it
You structure then you break it
You hold it in your steady hand
And then you finally fake it
Take me down
To your source ground
Take me down
To your home sound
So you roll it up and roll it in
See it coming out and see it coming in again
Then you start to fake it
So my energy you steal it
You crack it up and feel it
Facing up your sticky hand
I had to cut it off to deal with
Angel water coming down
Angel water swimming in
Angel water coming out
Angel water coming in
