Well, it happens to me
When I see that baby
I got thought in my mind
Come and be mine
I don't ask your name
I don't play your game
But you're sure look so fine
So come and be mine
Fire's burning hurting me inside
Naughty feeling I just can't hide
I don't need your love
I just want you NOW
My lust is so wild
Baby come and be mine
It's not for lifetime
It's just for a while
It's just for one night
But come and be mine
With this pain in my balls
I just lose control
Yeah, I'm losing my mind
Come and be mine
Now I'm so surprised
And I don't recognize
All the things that I've done
There sure was no fun
But it happens again
I see her and then
I got shivers inside
Come and be mine
