Don't know what's happened to my brain
The rockin' music drives me insane
Can't change my luck
I always want to rock.
From early morning through all the day
I'm surfing on my rockin' wave
I run amuck
Of those who don't want to rock.
Rock like a hurricane Rock, rock, rock like a hurricane
There is something rockin' my brain.
Can get no sleep in the dead of night
Oh, wake up baby! The moon is shining bright
It's two o'clock
Exactly time to rock.
Come to the funeral party, there's something wrong
The music is playing but everybody's stiff like a stone
C'mon, get up!
And join the deadly rock.
Oh, baby, baby, baby, baby leave my balls alone
Don't want to go to bed just want to go to big dance floor
Don't want to fuck
I just prefer to rock.
