"Tram In Lunacy"

The sun is shining in the sky
A crowd of people gets inside
A little tram in a small quiet town
Flies are buzzing around
I've got a ticket for a ride
I also want to get inside
This tram is looking like usual machine
But I feel something about
Have you ever seen tram in lunacy
Hungry demon is going ahead
Have you ever seen tram in lunacy
Hundred people are gonna be, gonna be dead
The tram is going down the street
It's running with a fast car speed
What's going on, who is moving it on?
Please someone stop this run!
The tram is jumping through the air
And somersaulting downstairs
It's time for bones to break
It's time for flesh to tear
Smell of blood everywhere
