"Chasing Your Tail"

Visit "Chasing Your Tail" on MotoLyrics.com

You've been laying low, your world's inside
You found a place to hide
I believed all the things that you said
I found truth in those lies
I wanna leave it behind
Now I'm looking for you
Ranting and raving in the dead of the night
And now I'm finding you
Know what I'm gonna do
Gonna make it right
You can run but you can't hide
You're chasing your tail
Biting off your behind
Hunted down, I'm finding you out
Don't even doubt
I'm stalking like a criminal
I've got you in my sights
I'm feeding your fright
Now I'm finding you
Know what I'm gonna do
I'm gonna make it all right
I tracked you down
I'm gonna pull you down
Put you in your place
You can run but you can't hide
You're chasing your tail
Biting off your behind
You can run but you can't hide
You're closer to hell with a free ride
You tried to run but you couldn't hide
Now I'm taking your life
Sifting through your ashes, I took your life
And now I'm taking mine
