"Sorry"

I've got you stuck in my head
And I know that it's all in my head
Now you will show me how to feel
Now you will show me how to stare

When my heart is breaking for you
And my soul aching for truth
I'm so sorry I cared
I'm so sorry that I cared for you at all

Let me know that you are more than a parasite feeding
Drain all my blood just to keep you from breeding
Now it's time I need to let you go
Now It's Time I need to gain control

When my heart is breaking for you
And my soul is aching for truth
I'm so sorry I cared
I'm so sorry that I cared for you at all

There's something about the sound of pain
That puts me at ease
I like to hear you breakdown
Just to rest in peace again

When my heart is breaking for you
And my soul aching for truth
I'm so sorry I cared
I'm so sorry that I cared for you at all
