Lies won't save you from the bomb that you just dropped Im standing shell shocked but I'm still here and this to you is what im saying all that's false will fade away

you run away from what you know will surely come I will remember everything that you have done and this to you is what im saying all that's false will
fade away

I'll say it again because who are you to say to me that im not all right you don't know what its like I'm shellshocked and ripped apart inside no I'm not all right you don't know what its like well yeah a change in character is great and if its what you need to say its probably what I need to hear but never again in that way

I don't care what Im doing that's turning you off of me its my care for pursuing our friendship responsibly that's why I need to reconstruct what happens subconsciously so we don't continue to treat our silence so obnoxiously

lies wont save you from the bomb that you just dropped im standing shellshocked but im still here
fade away
