the ghosts of the past come haunting me i'm thinking about times that used to be i past the park where i first got laid down by the canal where i met my mates we were the kids of the wall town misfits of society and it felt like no way out but we shouted it out proud

CHORUS:

smash down the world
in the dangerzone
smash down the world
and we were not alone
i don't mind the pain and the sorrow
smash down the world
in the dangerzone
smash down the world
and i still don't mind the pain fighting, stealing, drinking and dealing to scared to shed a tear and show a feeling we were young but we saw through your lies i raised the clenched fist with bloodshed eyes we were one for all and all against this world what ever happened back then, we still haven't turned into men

just out for fun always hated your schools chased by the cops never believed in your rules but what you are is what you get that's what my mother said
