I'm burning the polaroids, but memory sticks
I felt for you in fact i burned my prick
Wish i could spend a last night between your legs
Listen, i sit and wonder who's having love with you now
Behind closed eyes, my privat horrorshow
The king of fools is wearing the crown
And the sea of heartbreak is where i drown
CHORUS:
And love is dead - it's a tragedy
Yeah love is dead - what an evil thief
She stole my heart with no regrets
Now love is dead
So many asses around me, but i only want yours
My dick is starving 'cause my nights are a bore
Hello again, here comes another lone day
The naked truth is here to stay
CHORUS:
And love is dead - it's a tragedy
Yeah love is dead - what an evil thief
She stole my heart with no regrets
Now love is dead - shut up and rot
Your love is dead - i'm gonna chop up the slut
That stole my heart with no regrets
You stole my fuckin' heart with no regrets
