

Madcap "Situation Breakdown"

Visit "Situation Breakdown" on MotoLyrics.com

No situation, no time for frustration
Let's shake it off, let's try it again

I stand witness of destruction in the streets
Blood sheds in the city, shots ring over seas
I stand witness of a broken world, of a dying world
On it's way to self-destruction

This bed's been made, we don't have to lie on it
This world is not like you, this world is not like me
We must unite and build a new nation
This one's failed us, it's failed my generation

Better, stronger, together, forever
A brand new nation
Better, stronger, together, forever
A brand new nation
Better, stronger, together, forever
Is what we need

No situation, no time for frustration
Let's shake it off, let's try it again
Righteous separation and world segregation
Make holy wars between unholy nations

Hey, hey

Don't wanna be part of this broken world
Let's take the pieces and build a new one, build it strong
Don't wanna be part of this broken world
Let's take the pieces and build a new one, build it
strong

Don't wanna be part of this broken world
Let's take the pieces and build a new one, build it
strong
Don't wanna be part of this broken world
Let's take the pieces and build a new one, build it
strong

Better, stronger, together, forever

A brand new nation
Better, stronger, together, forever
A brand new nation
Better, stronger, together, forever
Is what we need

Hey, hey

I see destruction in the streets
I see destruction in the city
I see destruction in the streets
I see destruction in the city

A brand new nation
I see destruction in the city
A brand new nation
I see destruction in the city
A brand new nation
A brand new nation
