[Intro - Tshawe]

That feelin' I get from your eyes, that feelin I get from your smile

[Verse 1 - Tshawe]

Not many people have been this blessed naw
On the contruri most people livin' in endless stress Hopenin to share a child withchu when the time is due Finnaly I get to live a life withchu
Instead of talkin for awhile that we always do Laughing and sometimes I hear crying to shit!

I know exactly what I rather do pappy one of the half Come over gladly and have your moms tell how you made a damn mistake Fall in love with a man unfaihtfull as a trail
I can't understand but lately I've been damned
You don't know whatchu got until it's gone
And got again I tresure you more then ever Like you bought my lence better I'm molin I'm in a boalin blessed tellin the world for all the wetness
On knees had to get it of my heart cause it's hard to breath

[Chorus - Tshawe]

I've been blessed cause I've been blessed that feelin I get from your kiss That feelin I get from your legs I've been blessed I 've been blessed
That feelin I get from your eyes that feelin I get from
your smile

I remember the first time we ever met you said you

And why is everybody talkin about a kid and a couple years went of
And here we is talkin about a future and shit sharing a crib Among other things I miss you whenever distance and pisses me of Wasn't the first one there that take you in a sence weight
That shit hurts me still but I deserve it for hurtin your feelings
Back then but nins Iâ€™m still tryna find my way's And man if you know what it mean I ainâ€™t tryin blame no names
In the fes Iâ€™m tryin to talk you or understand Iâ€™m tryin to say what I meant way back when I was...

[Chorus - Tshawe]

Iâ€™ve been blessed Iâ€™ve been blessed that feelin I get from your kiss
That feelin I get from your legs Iâ€™ve been blessed Iâ€™

That feelin I get from your eyes that feelin I get from your smile.
