Will you try to understand me
Before you walk away
And don't hear me

Tell me why and tell me how
I have reached the bottom of my life
And you're not here with me

Who knows if I would find the way to forget you
But the question is, I really wanna leave you?

Now you are not here
I NEED TO SEE YOUR EYES
You've got me
ALL WRONG THOSE FUCKING EYES
I've heard your last regards
I've heard your last regards

Tell me what you wanna feel
I'll do my best,
Don't forget this request
I'm begging you.

Everyday without a hope,
Flowers began to die
In this cold night
Thinking in you my darling

And after all love left us, love left us down
And I know, I loved you, now I hate you
Now I can't take what's mine
Ending this for the first and last time no more beg's to you!

I beg!
