We are Made To Be Broken
Yeah, we want to take you
And we'll try to break you
We are so ready for it now, wow!
There is someone to take control of the situation
Or we'll be running all night long losing control
Breaking hearts and throwing tears
Before take damage to the heart.

Every moment to die in love.
Taking reactions like cookies and milk.

Morning sunset upside down world.
(Ohhh more sugar please)
Drowning moon sinking in the sea.
(Like cookies in milk)
It's a cheap to believe
It's a cheap to believe in me.

Take my lid and close the well before I jump
It's a cheap to believe.
