Too long in the same place
I'm sinking into this town
I've charmed the same old snakes
I think we gotta get out

Before I break away from me
This place is my lobotomy
And imagine we were dead
Counting all the things we never did

I remember when you told me
I should live like I'm dying
Not to close my eyes
While everything burns

What are we waiting for?
These years are dying slowly
Today is still in front of us
Today is now or never

I can't contemplate the earth
All while my head's in the sand
'Cause I've been buried alive
So take my bleeding hands

And breathe life into me
'Cause right now, I'm suffocating
Imagine we were dead
Counting all the things we never did

I remember when you told me
I should live like I'm dying
Not to close my eyes
While everything burns

What are we waiting for?
These years are dying slowly
Today is still in front of us
Today is now or never

I don't want a life of agony
I won't be another tragedy

Not to close my eyes
While everything burns

And I won't pretend I don't exist
Invisible until I turn to dust
Open your eyes
We're still alive

Standing still is criminal
And never lasts forever
The safest place in life is now
Today's the day we're breakin' out

I remember when you told me
I should live like I'm dying
Not to close my eyes

What are we waiting for?

What are we waiting for?
What are we waiting for?
